

The Elections.

Government Sustained by Increased Majority.

Sifton Elected in Brandon

RICHARDSON RETURNED FOR LISGAR.

Laurier Has 2,900 Majority.

Sir Charles Tupper and Hon Geo E Foster Defeated.

Davin Defeated by Scott.

Tarte Elected with 1000 Majority.

(Winnipeg, Nov. 9th, '00. Manitoba results:

Brandon, Sifton, Lib., 790, majority. Lisgar, Richardson, ind., 270 maj. Macdonald, Boyd, Con. Marquette, Roche, Con. Provencher, Bertrand, Lib. Selkirk, McCreary, Lib. and Haslam Con., both claim the seat.

Winnipeg, Pattée, Labor, 1183 maj. Late reports show Douglas probably elected in East Assiniboia. Oliver's election gives general satisfaction here, excepting among strongly partisan conservatives.

Premier Roblin has announced his policy with regard to immigration. He is opposed to further importation of foreigners.

Quebec, Nov. 8th. Sir Wilfrid Laurier received the returns of the elections last night in the skating rink, where he was cheered continuously by 5000 people, assembled there to see them thrown upon the screen by the staff of the Soleil. The liberal leaders are naturally much pleased at the large majority in this city and province, showing, as they do, that the appeals of the French conservative candidates for votes against Laurier because of his sending aid to the British in Africa had failed of their effort. "French liberals," said a leading English citizen to-night, "have covered themselves with glory by protesting so firmly as they have by their votes against the appeals to racial prejudices. Their votes like their recent welcome to the returning troops have affirmed their loyalty to the empire of which they have so often given proof." This was the gist of most of the speeches made at the rink by Laurier, Doherty, Fitzpatrick, Langelier and others. The premier returned his thanks to the people of Canada for their generous support.

Toronto, Nov. 7th: The Mail gives the government a majority of 49 and curiously claims that the conservatives carried the country, aside from Quebec, though its columns, of course, disprove this.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 8th: Sir Richard Cartwright is more than pleased over the election returns. He recognizes that the conservative party is out of existence now and that new leaders will have to be found. In Ontario he considers that the liberals had done well when it is considered how this province is bound and fettered with an iniquitous gerrymander.

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 8th: The election returns are now practically complete. The conservatives have won one additional seat in Quebec, the parties now standing 56 to 8 with one election to be held which will doubtless go with the government. In Ontario there is no change. Mr. McNeil is elected in North Bruce by 25 and Thornton defeats Bell in West Durham. The majority for Bennett in East York is 80. In Nova Scotia, Roche, liberal, appears to be elected in Halifax by a majority of about 14 over Mr. Keany, making the representation from that city one liberal and one conservative instead of two conservatives. Sir C.H. Tupper and Bell are elected in Pictou. This leaves the standing of the parties at 15 lib to 5 in Nova Scotia. In Prince Edward Island the result is unchanged, the liberals securing four out of five seats. In West Prince and East Queens the majorities were only 11 and 35 respectively, with five elections to be held, Algoua and Nipissing in Ontario, Gaspe, Quebec and Burrard and Yale-Cariboo, in British Columbia.

The standing of the parties is: Ontario, Cons. 48, Libs. 34, Ind. 2. Quebec, Cons. 8, Libs. 56. Nova Scotia, Cons. 5, Libs. 15. Prince Edward Island, Cons. 1, Libs. 4. Manitoba, Cons. 3, Libs. 2, Ind. 2. New Brunswick, Cons. 5, Libs. 9. British Columbia, Cons. 2, Libs. 1, Ind. 1. Northwest Territories, Libs. 4. Totals, Cons. 79, Libs. 124, Ind. 5. Liberal majority 45.

Laurier's majority is 2,500. Tarte was elected by 1,000 majority. Hon. Geo. E. Foster is defeated. Sir Charles Tupper was defeated by A. G. Blair.

Walter Scott wins over N. F. Davin in West Assiniboia.

The War.

DeWet was Wounded.

STEYN URGES CONTINUED RESISTANCE.

Royal Canadians Sail from Cape Town.

Pretoria, Nov. 7th: By rail to Charlestown, Natal, Wednesday, Nov. 7th: General DeWet has been wounded in the leg in a fight with the troops of General Knox at Rensburg Drift. According to native reports the Boer commander narrowly escaped.

Pretoria, Nov. 7th: Surrendered laagers assert that Mr. Steyn, after a council of war with General Botha and General Delany addressed the burghers with great passion urging them to continue the war. He told them he was going south and hoped to return with 5000 men assuring them that he knew that Germany had delivered an ultimatum to Great Britain demanding the retrocession of the republic.

Cape Town, Nov. 7th: The British transport Hkwarden Castle, having on board the Royal Canadian Regiment, sailed from here to-day. The two companies on board were A and B company. The former westerners.

ACCIDENT AT HORSE HILLS.

On Wednesday evening of the farm of Mr. Viazina, Horse Hills, about 5 p. m., while endeavoring to put on the belt of the self-feeding apparatus, which had come off, Mr. E. J. Lawrence, Sr., sustained such injuries as resulted in his death Thursday morning at 7 a. m. It appears he was caught in the belt, was drawn up against the pulley, which whirled him round three times with terrible force completely severing his left arm from the body near the shoulder and throwing it away about 10 feet. Dr. Whitelaw was summoned from town and found in addition to this injury which had caused surprisingly little loss of blood, that he had had nearly all his ribs on the left side broken, besides injuries to the head and face the nature of which could not be accurately determined at the time. He was immediately removed to the general hospital here, where a consultation was held, when it was decided that the fracture of the base of the skull had occurred and that his condition was hopeless. Consciousness was never regained, and the unfortunate man sank from brain complications dying, as stated, at 7:30 a. m. Thursday morning.

The deceased was 51 years of age and was well known in the district. He went to Peace river in 1899 in the employ of the church mission society, having come from the eastern townships of Quebec. He farmed and taught school on the Peace for 12 years when he went exclusively into farming and ranching at Vermilion. A year ago last year Mr. Lawrence turned the business over to his sons, Fred and Fenwick and came out to Edmonton to get better educational facilities for his daughter. In addition to the two boys now at Vermilion, the deceased leaves two daughters, Mrs. J. E. Skinner, of Chicago, and Clara Lawrence, Edmonton.

The funeral takes place to-morrow from Mr. Stapely's residence, Nayaya avenue to the Edmonton cemetery.

EDMONTON BULLETIN, NOV. 9TH, 1900

COL STEELE'S REPORT.

A report received at the militia department from Col. Steele, commanding the Strathcona Horse, is written from Spitzkop, Sept. 18. It makes the following reference to the action at Badstubein, in which seven non-commissioned officers and men were killed and wounded: "On the 5th inst. the regiment performed the duty of protecting the right and left of the camp. C. squadron, under Captain Cameron, were on the right. Lieut. Leckie was sent to form an observation post on the top of a high ridge and Sergeant Logan, with a section, to place another on the same ridge, more to the front. The latter, while passing, became entangled with the enemy, with the result that only one of the section escaped. Lieut. Leckie reached the summit, but after a time, owing to the strength of the enemy, was obliged to send for support. This I sent him, but on the way they also met the enemy, under cover of the rocks. Sgt. Brothers and Pte. Crudekank were killed here. The force marched on after the 7th, and every day until arriving here on the 11th, we have met the enemy. Corporal Nicholson and Pte. Plimford were wounded at Devil's Knuckles, while the regiment was making a rapid advance on the Bear country. They are not seriously wounded."

BRITAIN AND FRANCE.

Commercial: The recent annual meeting of the Association of Chambers of Commerce of the United Kingdom, was held under somewhat novel circumstances. The meeting of the association, which represents the combined influence of the boards of trade and chambers of commerce of the United Kingdom, was held in Paris. It seems almost startling to think that in the face of all we have read recently about the hatred existing in France for everything British, that this great national association representing the varied business interests of the United Kingdom, should be meeting in France. The affair came about in this way. One of the several British chambers of commerce existing in foreign lands, has its headquarters in Paris. The members of the Paris chamber conceived the idea of inviting the association to hold its meeting in the French capital, during the progress of the great exposition. The invitation was accepted by the British association, and the annual meeting, the first one to be held on foreign soil, proved a great success.

It is pleasing to learn that the Britishers were given an enthusiastic reception in France. Of course the French people are nothing, if not polite, and the coming of such a distinguished body of men could hardly be overlooked, even if the members of the body could be considered mortal enemies of the French people. Still the warmth of the reception accorded the Britishers hardly seems to bear out the belief that the French are as bitter against the British as they are represented to be by the press, or at least a section of the press. Let us hope that the evidence of hatred are only superficial and that the friendly feelings expressed by the French for their British visitors represents the real sentiment of the better class of Frenchmen.

The members of the British chambers of commerce landed on French soil at Calais, and here they were tendered a most hearty reception by the Calais chamber of commerce. At the luncheon that followed, there were sympathetic speeches from the members of the Calais chamber, and it is worthy of note that the speeches were made in English, while the visitors replied in French. The president of the Calais chamber characterized the "mischievous misrepresentations of certain newspapers" regarding the anti-British feeling in France as absurd. Altogether the speeches were of a very felicitous nature on both sides.

In Paris the visitors were accorded a very warm reception. The French minister of commerce and other notables were among those who met to welcome the British. M. Millerand, minister of commerce, said in the address of welcome:

tended to understand and appreciate one another. Representatives of British commerce and industry know better than any the strength of the ties which bound together the two nations whose exchanges amounted to millions of francs a year. French merchants, manufacturers, and agriculturists were no less convinced of the necessity of maintaining and strengthening the friendly relations between the two countries, and their reception in Paris would prove how those feelings were shared by the whole population. They found their most striking expression in that international fête which France was glad to offer to the world to the glory of labor and peace. In the name of the government of the republic, he offered them a cordial welcome.

The meeting of the association in Paris was closed with a grand banquet, at which M. Millerand and many other notable Frenchmen were present, and the evening was spent in the exchange of complimentary references between the Britishers and Frenchmen. While all is not quite so glittering and smooth complimentary references at an affair of this kind may not be as genuine as they should be, yet the result of the meeting of the British Association of Chambers of Commerce in Paris can hardly fail to do good. Certainly there would seem to be every reason why business men in both countries should strive to maintain harmonious relations between the two nations. This is especially true of French business men, seeing to what a large extent France is dependent upon the United Kingdom as a customer for her exports. The United Kingdom is by all odds the best customer France has in the world, taking 1,200 million francs' worth of French goods, or more than one-third of the entire exports of that country, of which wines and silks form a very large portion. While France is a good customer of British products, the balance of trade between the two countries is largely in favor of France, the latter country taking 700 million francs' worth of British goods. It may be here stated, however, that France imports more goods from the United Kingdom than from any other country.

These figures afford excellent reasons for hoping that friendly relations will be maintained between the two countries, and that the good sense of the people will eventually rise superior to the nasty bickerings and ill-temper which has been shown by a section of the press.

THE CANADIAN NORTHERN.

Tracklaying on the Canadian Northern railway is now about completed to the Red Deer river, a distance of 118 miles northwest of Swan river, which was the terminus of the road a year ago. The Red Deer, the name of which is to be changed to Reinder, to avoid the confusion which would arise on account of their being another Red Deer, will remain the terminus of the road until construction work begins again next spring. A large number of the men who have been working on the road, will be employed in getting out ties and timber which will be used in continuing the road up to Prince Albert next summer. The Red Deer river is near the northwestern corner of the province of Manitoba in Saskatchewan territory. The road has been extended this season through a country which heretofore has been practically unknown and without settlement, but which will now be brought within the pale of settlement and civilization.

On the northeastern section of the Canadian Northern system, tracklaying is now about completed to the Rainy river, a distance of 150 miles from Winnipeg. The road will cross the river at a point known as Beaver Mills on the Canadian side of the river and at Bandette on the United States side. A railway bridge will be built across the river connecting these two points, during the winter. A considerable traffic between Winnipeg and Rainy river will spring up at once, as the road, has now reached a point where traffic will be available. The company expect to handle a large number of sawlogs during the winter and spring, including logs for the new mill to be established in Winnipeg by the Port Roper Lumber Co. A new time card will be issued for November 15, giving the revised train service as necessitated by the operation of the newly completed portion of the line. Winnipeg will therefore soon have a through train service to Rainy river.—Winnipeg Commercial.

The Kootenay and Boundary mining districts of British Columbia are stirred over a railway investigation now being held at Nelson. It is alleged by their secret service agents of the Canadian Pacific railway that a regularly organized gang has existed in the mining regions for some time past whereby the Canadian Pacific has been defrauded of many thousands of dollars by means of fraudulent tickets originally purchased, undated, at the office of the company, to be taken up by the conductors in the scheme of fraud and returned to the special agents of this trainmen's syndicate, by the special agents to be sold over and over again. It is understood that in the majority of cases hotel runners acted as go-betweens. Two conductors who have been in the employment of the Canadian Pacific for years are said to have organized this scheme, and the local station agents are also charged with a share in managing the big swindle. Every employee of the company on the Pacific division is anxiously awaiting the outcome of the investigation.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, excepting 3 and 20, which has not been homesteaded, reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situated, or if the homesteader desires he may, on application to the minister of the interior, Ottawa, the commissioner of immigration, Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situated receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for an ordinary homestead entry, but for lands which have been occupied an additional fee of $5 or $10 is chargeable to meet cancellation or inspection and cancellation expenses.

Under the present law homestead duties must be performed in one of the following ways, namely:—

(1). By at least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land (if each year during the term of three years).

(2). If the father (or the mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of the law as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3). If a settler has obtained a patent for his first homestead, or a certificate for the issue of such patent countersigned in the manner prescribed by the Dominion Lands Act, and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead.

(4). If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of the law as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon this said land.

Application for patent should be made at the end of the three years, before the local agent, sub-agent or the homestead inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the commissioner of Dominion lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so. When, for the convenience of the settler, application for patent is made before a homestead inspector, a fee of $5 is charged.

EDMONTON BULLETIN, NOV. 9TH, 1900

AN IMPORTANT DECISION.

At Regina on the 25th, Chief Justice Richardson gave judgment in the suit of Henry McGowan, Overseer of the Weyburn local improvement district, against the Hudson's Bay Company. The suit was entered by the Territorial government to settle the question of the validity of the local improvement ordinance and was tried at Regina in July last, the company being represented by leading lawyers from Winnipeg and the Territories, and the overseer by the deputy attorney-general. The judgment was in favor of the overseer, the company being ordered to pay the taxes imposed, with costs. This judgment settles the question of the collection of taxes for local improvements from all land owners, including the large land owning companies, and the Territorial government deserves credit for having the matter finally settled by judgment of the court in such a prompt manner.

COL. OTTER'S REPORT.

Another batch of reports was received at the militia department from South Africa. Lieut. Col. Drury, commanding the Canadian artillery, writes from Pretoria under date of Sept. 13, sends his diary, which covers from August 23 to Sept. 13, but it contains nothing of importance. Chaplain Cox proceeded to Bloemfontein and secured a truck of Canadian Red Cross stores.

Lieut. Col. Evans' report is dated at Nottingham on Sept. 15, the battalion had a skirmish with the Boers. The enemy retired after the Britishers fired two shells. The field state shows of parade 188, sick 95, missing 1, and the remainder are engaged in various occupations. Corp. Quinn, Pies, Pearson, Jackson, Wetzel, J. A. Paterson, J. H. Brown, Corps. Bain, Rodgers, Pies, King, Waller, McKay, who were sick, have rejoined the regiment.

Lieut. Col. Otter's report from Erato Fabricken covers from Sept. 8 to Sept. 14. He again deals with the circumstances which led those now under his command to remain over in South Africa. Col. Otter says that Lord Roberts met the main body of the R. C. R. and expressed his pleasure to learn that the battalion would prolong its services as different action on its part would likely cause other colonial corps to withdraw. This was on Sept. 10. On the 11th Col. Otter went to Silverton to speak to the officers on the subject, but says that owing to "the ridiculous contention of Capt. Stairs on the subject he did not do so."

Letters came on the 12th from Capt. Barker and Fraser reporting their men not satisfied to re-engage or stay any longer. On the 13th Col. Otter received letters from Major Pelletier, Capt. Barker, Fraser and Lieut. Swift notifying him of the refusal of the men of C and F companies to re-engage for further service in South Africa and also from Capt. Stairs, of H. company. Col. Otter then wired to Lord Roberts that then desire of the officers and men and asked that such be complied with. In reply thereto a wire was received from Lord Roberts regretting the decision the regiment had come to, as it was unlikely its services would be required much longer, and its going away would prevent its taking part in the annexation ceremony at Pretoria and being present at the proposed review in England by Her Majesty.

The messages were communicated to the men by Col. Otter. Captain Stairs, of H. company, reported that all his men wished to return to Canada at once and Lieut. Lawless, of D. company, that 32 of his men wished to return, and 12 to remain. No further report had up to that date been received from the other companies. The parole state showed 285 invalided to England, 35 killed and dead of wounds and 26 dead of disease, 17 transferred, leaving 789 in South Africa at that date.

Lieut. Col. Lessard's report shows an uneventful week and Major Hurdman says that his battery was inspected by Lord Roberts.

The Rev. Father O'Leary, chaplain of the First Canadian contingent, starts from Liverpool for Quebec, on board the steamer Camborne.

THE SOLDIERS' RETURN.

Although it was between 2 and 3 o'clock Thursday morning when the Idalus was signalled off Halifax, hundreds were still on the streets, having counted confidently on the arrival of the steamer. By early dawn the number had increased to thousands, and the harbor was covered with craft. The government steamer Arcadia, with the deputy minister of militia, Lieut. Col. Pinault, and the general officers of the department on board, was one of the earliest visitors and was received with a mighty cheer from the returned soldiers. The men were paid and received their official discharge in a short space of time. The cheering was incessant all over the harbor and shores, as the Idalus passed through the crowded boats to the wharf. A salute of 50 guns was fired from the citadel, and others followed suit. This was the signal for the starting of chimes and bells from the city, which from then on added their welcome notes. Along the water front of a mile or more of wharves, great throngs had gathered and the cheering was incessant and the enthusiasm intense as the troop ship slowly steamed toward the landing place, her rolls lined with khaki-clad warriors who were returning from their year of fighting on the veldt of Africa, and who heartily responded to the cheers. A hundred yards from where the Idalus passed, the battleship, Crescent, a magnificent warship, gave her own welcome. Her 600 sailors had gathered in the rigging and gave mighty British cheers, which were hardly drowned even amid the thunder of the salute given by the great guns of the ship. The men in khaki exchanged cheers and salutes with the men in blue, and the bands of the ship, the Crescent played "Home Sweet Home," till many eyes were wet with tears. Only the relatives of the men were allowed access to the admiralty wharf where the men were landing. Vast crowds had gathered on the heights around the harbor and choked the principal thoroughfares of the city. The first men to greet the returned soldiers besides their relatives were the 50 of their own invalided comrades just returned from Africa, and the greeting between them was very warm indeed. Mr. Pelletier was first off the ship, followed by the members of A. company, Toronto, and Hamilton C. company came last. All the men got a magnificent reception, but the most enthusiastic of all was naturally given Nova Scotia's own sons, of H. company. The men formed up in front of the admiralty offices, went through a few movements with precision and then the procession started. Mounted policemen led the way and the Crescent's 600 sailors took part. Counting the latter and the returned soldiers there were not less than 5,000 soldiers in line. The Royal Canadians were, of course, the heroes of the day, and after them the Crescent's men, who dragged with them one of the ship's great naval guns. The delay in the arrival of the ship only allowed the arrangements to be made more perfect. Several great arches had been erected with massive pillars of evergreens. There were myriads of flags flying, great and small. At one spot there were sad remembrances of the horrors of war and the perils the Royal Canadian band passed through in the ships of pictures of Lieut. Harold Borden and John Sivert, two of Nova Scotia's sons, who had fallen. It is impossible to exaggerate the intensity and universality of the enthusiasm which the return of the troops aroused. The day was unique in the history of Halifax. The celebration was kept up all day and all night, a magnificent display of fireworks and brilliant illuminations being features of the evening. The men for Ontario and western points left on a special train at 1 o'clock in the morning. They have brought with them an odd collection of curiosities in the shape of monkeys, parrots, muskets, coins, pipes and other souvenirs.

SERGT. ASTON IN OTTAWA.

Ottawa, Oct. 31: "We can never forget our treatment in London," said Mr. Aston, one of the returned Mounted Rifles, who is spending a few days in the capital previous to returning to his home in Edmonton, N. W. T. "Nothing was too good for us. There were 33 of us invalided to London, and the way we were treated there was an object lesson in the way of hospitality. The nobility threw their houses open to us to stay as long as we wished. We decided to stop at the summer residence of the Countess of Grosvenor, wife of the under-secretary of war, Wyndham. Fifteen of us were guests there for a month. Everything in the way of luxuries was provided and we had the parlors, the drawing rooms and the billiard room at our complete disposal. We were banqueted at the Hotel Cecil, having been escorted there by the First Royal Guards. The lord mayor and councillors took a prominent part in the function. While being banqueted in the city hall later on, the Queen telegraphed to the effect that Balmoral Castle was thrown open for our inspection. This was a special honor. Inasmuch as even private apartments were always closed to the public were thrown open for us. We were also banqueted at Oxford university and at Marlton and St. John colleges. In Oxford cathedral a memorial service was held for the colonial who died and were killed in South Africa, at which Dr. Robertson, one of the leading organists of London, played the Dead March in Saul.

"Wherever we went," continued Sergt. Aston, "the nobility greeted us with open arms and said that England could never thank Canada sufficiently for the part taken in the war. I was in company with Pte. Donohue, who is minus a leg as a result of the battle of Paardeberg and it was with difficulty that I could assist him through the crowd and keep the ladies from continually embracing and kissing him. In fact we were all more or less honored in this respect. "As to our experience in South Africa, it was a pretty rough one as we were advanced scouts for Gen. Roberts' main force from Bloemfontein to Middleburg, on the other side of Pretoria. Our roughest time was a march of 700 miles over the karoo desert. This is regarded as the best feat in marching that has been done in Africa. Our important action in the campaign was that of going through the outposts of the Boers at Smael Deel station and by blowing up a bridge on Vet river, succeeded in capturing a trainload of provisions and several guns of the retreating Boers." Sergt. Aston, has several mementoes of the war in the shape of Boer bullets and coins.

CONJURING CREEK.

The weather is all that could be desired, and has been for some time past. Farmers have been able to finish harvest and, the creek, is well supplied with stacks, and as one of our settlers, Mr. Fraser, purchased a new threshing outfit this fall, threshing will also be a thing of the past soon. Mr. Fraser starts out with the machine this week.

A shooting match takes place at the post office store next week.

Our mail service is very, very poor. Jack Frowl seems to have come to stay.

There has been no church service on the creek but once or twice all summer. If a denomination would erect a church in the centre of the settlement, there would be a large gathering. The Presbyterians had a church built on the outside of the settlement in a very low place, almost a slough, being generously donated by a farmer, the result was a failure and the Presbyterians withdrew, and it has been used as a school. But the school had to be closed as no scholars were through mud or swim. We have the Conjoining Creek post office in the centre and always a beaten trail to it and fine site, and the postmaster, Mr. Saugster has offered a church site. We deeply regret that no denomination will take any interest in it. This Methodist denomination always seemed to have a good name for being pushing, but they seem very backward here. A Methodist Sunday school was started, but during two or three months of its existence no minister attended at all. Oct. 30, '00.

MANITOBA WEATHER AND CROPS.

Commercial: The weather has remained for the most part fine this week. There was a little break about the middle of the week, when rain fell in some districts. The rain, however, was not general, and was light in most parts where it was experienced, making only a slight interruption to harvest work. Farmers have now had a good opportunity to complete the stacking of their grain, and threshing in some districts is already well on toward completion. While there is much damp wheat, the quality of the crop is turning out decidedly better than could have been expected, considering the prolonged wet weather earlier in the season. Damp grain is not as great a calamity as it would have been a few years ago, as there are now some facilities for drying the grain, at the various drying plants established in the country, and the cost of 1-2 cents per bushel for drying is not excessive. Good prices are being paid in the country for the wheat that is offering, but the farmers are too busy with fall plowing and threshing to give much attention to the marketing of grain.

LACOMBE.

Our exhibition took place on Nov. 1st. It had been postponed on account of the weather which in a great measure took away much of the usual display. However, the day was fine and quite a goodly number of people arrived with the usual variety of vegetables, roots, etc. Mr. Ennis, of Buffalo lake, had one of the best assortments of vegetables and roots that has been witnessed here for a long time. His skill as a gardener is famed. As was to be expected there were some very fine cattle and horses. It is to be hoped another year it can be managed so as to have the fair at an earlier date.

Mr. O'Neil, of Calgary, made a business trip here this week.

C. Dolman, of Okotoks is here on a visit.

The Victoria hotel has received a new coat of paint which adds very much to its appearance.

H. Howell, is building an addition to his residence. The work is being done by G. Mobley.

C. Mobley has become an employee of the drug store.

L. J. Reinhardt has opened up a new carpenter shop on Nanton street. He is quite skillful and seems to be getting plenty of work.

F. Stevenson has purchased a lot on Glass street and is at present erecting a new lively barn.

The infant son of H. Talbot died last week.

The wife of C. Gilchrist gave birth to a son on the 31st of last month.

Mr. and Mrs. Towne, gave a very enjoyable party to their numerous friends at their new cottage on Hamilton avenue.

Two pleasant entertainments were given here on the 30th and 31st consisting of slide light views, instrumental and vocal music.

A magic lantern show of war scenes took place on the 1st.

The O. O. L. are to have a winter service in the Presbyterian church on the 4th and on the 5th will give a jubilee annual dinner at the Meriton House.

W. Puffer shipped a train load of cattle on the 31st, about 14 car loads. He has about 5 car loads which he intends shipping on the 3rd. As usual Mr. Puffer is doing the leading business along this line.

The citizens of Lacombe are deeply grateful for a member of the N. W. M. P. forces. It is quite a necessary thing in all of our western towns.

Rev. J. Mair has been stationed at Ponoka under the auspices of the Presbyterian church.

Dr. Gentry, who recently purchased the Ponoka cottage, is having an addition built to it.

Two "Sisters of Mercy" visited our town on the 23rd in the interest of their new hospital at Strathcona.

Our post office has undergone an entire change. We have now a complete set of boxes up-to-date in every respect a much needed improvement.

C. Stevenson is moving into his new residence on Glass street.

Nov. 2, '00.

OBITUARY.

In memoriam of the death of Sarah, widow of the late Donald McVicar, who died in Canada, on Sunday, October 14th, aged 80 years, a friend pens these few lines. Deceased was born in Argyshire, Scotland, in 1820. With her mother she came to Canada in 1850 settled in the township of Carleton, lot 20, con. 7. In 1851 she married Donald McVicar, who died in 1876. Both experienced the vicissitudes and trials of the early settlers in having out a home of what was at that time a forest. The surviving members of the family are John, of Wetaskiwin, Alberta, Rev. Archibald, of Huntsville, Ont.; Rev. Daniel, of Victoria church, Montreal; and Allan who resides on the homestead. Two daughters have been laid at rest, Sarah and Catherine, in May, 1887, and Mary Ann in early childhood, Sarah was in her 22nd year deeply regretted by a large circle of friends at that time. Mrs. McVicar was ill only three weeks, having suffered from a stroke of paralysis. She took great comfort from the company of her sons from a distance who were present in her closing hours. Her son at home and his wife and the neighbors did all they could to minister to her comfort, but God had called her from this world to a happier home where all is joy. The funeral on Monday, 15th inst., 2:30 p. m. was largely attended, many coming from a long distance to pay their last respects to one whom they loved. Her brother John McCorkindale, from Ennisville, was present, and several of her nearest relatives. There were about 110 rigs at the house. Rev. Hsieh, her pastor conducted the funeral at the house and grave. He preached an able and impressive sermon referring to the life she lived. Two favorite hymns of the departed were sung at the last service out of respect to her memory, one being "What a Friend We Have in Jesus." Mrs. McVicar had been for many years a faithful member of the North Carleton Presbyterian church. The remains were deposited in the Campbell burying ground in wake at the resurrection morn. The pallbearers were: James McKellar, Malcolm Campbell, Thomas Green, Angus McGugan, Dugald McPhail and John Henderson.

Farwell dear mother, your interest and kindness to us we shall never forget.

REACTION OF BOXER MOVEMENT.

The Chinese minister has received a despatch stating that Kang Yi, a member of the cabinet with Yung Lu, and one of the intense anti-foreign leaders whose punishment was demanded by the powers, died of illness on the 18th instant, also that Yu Hsien, the late governor of Shansi, who is said to have been responsible for the death of many missionaries, has committed suicide by swallowing gold leaf. Minister Wu regards this act as the result of the disfavor which the high officials have received from the throne. The death of Kang Yi is an important event, as he was one of the ringleaders whose punishment was demanded by the powers. Following the demands of the powers for his punishment an edict was issued handing him over to the board of censors to consult and decide a penalty for his misdeeds. Although the despatch to minister Wu says only that Kang Yi "died" on the 18th instant, it is thought that this "death" was the natural result of the disgrace which has overtaken the anti-foreign and Boxer element. Governor Yu's method of suicide by swallowing gold leaf is a means by which high Chinese persons take their life, the gold leaf being representative of their high station. The leaf forms a congealed ball in the canals of the body, and brings death from suffocation. Minister Wu's actions to-day also show that Prince Tuan has been visited with severe censure from the throne and to such an extent that it would be no surprise if he followed the course of Kang Yi and Yu. He has been prevented from accompanying the Imperial court to Sianfu, and remains at Shansi, cut off from further influence on the throne. It is expected that he will be banished. To a Prince of the blood this is worse than decapitation, and under the Chinese idea of propriety suicide is likely to be his end. Minister Wu laid his despatches before Secretary Hsieh.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION 1900.

The following are the results of the presidential elections as received over the wire Tuesday night and Wednesday morning:

New York, Nov. 6th.—The World says McKinley has carried New York state by over 2,000,000. The World also says Brooklyn goes for McKinley by 25,000.

Kansas City, Mo. O., Nov. 6th.—Total state vote estimated is four to six thousand larger than '96. Actual count will be late.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 6th.—Indications are Mass. will give McKinley plurality about 50,000.

New York, Nov. 6th.—Journal says New York state is conceded to McKinley. New York World says republican gained seven congressmen in New York state, the World issues an extra saying "McKinley wins". The Journal does not now concede anything.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 6th.—Early reports from cities indicate democratic gains.

New York, Nov. 6th. 8 p. m.—The National committee claim all states that went for McKinley in '96.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 6th.—At 7 o'clock the people gathered at Bryan's house to express opinions that New York is fast to democratic ticket and that the general outlook upon meager returns received are favourable. Mr. Bryan expressed no opinion.

Philadelphia, Pa. A., Nov. 6th.—The Inquirer says Penn. will give McKinley from 300,000 to 500,000 plurality.

New York, Nov. 6th.—Maine has gone republican by 25,000 plurality.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 6th.—Post conceded Hamilton county to republicans.

Nebraska City, Neb., Nov. 6th.—McKinley carries this city by 2000 plurality in every ward.

Portland, Ore., Nov. 6th.—Republican state chairman claims state by 10,000.

New York, Nov. 6th.—McKinley carried Seneca county by 400 plurality.

New York, Nov. 6th.—The Tribune says that reports from Missouri show that that state will go McKinley.

South Dakota, Nov. 6th.—Returns so far show heavy republican gain north Dakota; Republican gains all districts. The gain will be over that of 4 years ago.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 6th.—The constitution estimates Bryan majority in Georgia at 40,000. One or two counties went for McKinley.

Newark, N. J., Nov. 6th.—At 9 o'clock chairman Murphy, of the republican state committee claims the state by 65,000.

Not probably that result in Idaho be terminated before 1 or 2 in the evening.

Topeka, Kans., Nov. 6th.—Based upon the morning returns so far received, the republicans claim plurality of 3,000 for McKinley.

Denver, Col., Nov. 6th.—The republican state committee claim Colorado by 5,000.

San Jose, Cal., Nov. 6th.—McKinley will carry county by 600 to 1,000.

New York, Nov. 6th.—At this hour of looks as if McKinley would have 294 electoral votes and Bryan 153.

Wilmington, Delaware, Nov. 6th.—Returns indicate republican majority in Delaware 1,200.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 6th.—McKinley carries state by 17,000 majority.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 6th.—Indications are that McKinley carries Seattle county by a majority 10 to 15,000. Returns are slow coming in.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 6th.—At 10:45 p. m. returns from the state are coming slow. The indications are a plurality of from 2 to 4,000 for McKinley.

Montgomery, Ala.—State goes democratic.

South Dakota.—Half the precincts of Pettigrove, Home county, gave McKinley 764 majority, a big republican gain.

The State Legislature will probably be republican.

New York City completes with 168 electoral districts missing out of a total 1,522 gives McKinley 230,209, 278,608.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 6.—The republican state committee chairman says Illinois looks McKinley and Yates is running about even and will carry state by about 30,000.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 6th.—Lincoln county, Bryan's home county in the 15 precincts out of 30 heard from, show gain for McKinley of 600.

Indiana has gone for McKinley by probably 3,000. All precincts so far reported show a gain of 4 to the republican over 1896.

Oscoda, Wis.—Polk county will give McKinley 1,700 majority.

Newark, N. J.—The republicans now estimate McKinley's majority at 75,000.

Denver, Colo., 10 p. m.—Incomplete state returns now indicate Bryan will have 30,000 majority.

Result up to present time is in favor of McKinley no more definite returns until morning.

LATER.

President McKinley and Gov. Roosevelt have carried the United States presidential elections defeating Bryan and Stevenson. The pluralities in several of the eastern and middle states were reduced but not sufficient to lose the election. If all the doubtful states go to Bryan, McKinley still has sufficient number of the electoral college vote to win.

O'Dell was elected Governor of New York.

McKinley has 247 sure votes, Bryan 139, while 61 are in doubt.

Wm. Eggleston got in a car of coal on Monday, but could not fill half the demand. He will have to ship in more all once.

Now the elections are over we can all settle down to our usual avocations in peace and harmony.

Barnes' Perfumery is the best remedy known for all kidney troubles. One dollar will give relief. It can be bought at Walker's Drug Store.

Mr. Rippon, of Hull, England, brother of Mr. J. H. Walker, with his wife and little daughter came in on Thursday's train.

With them also came Mrs. Brewer, sister to Mrs. Walker, and her son, Mr. Thomas Brewer, all from Hull, England. The new-comers intend spending some time here and if satisfied, will make Alberta their future home.

Over 400 persons were present at the meeting on Monday evening. Mr. Bennett and Mr. Sifton were both applauded freely and both declared themselves well satisfied with the meeting.

By this time the result of the elections will be known so we will leave the meeting unreported and only remark that the McDonnell Hall, proved itself to be well adapted for public speaking.

The hearing being perfect in every part of the room. The audience was the largest ever gathered together in one place in this town.

London, Nov. 2.—Predictions are now freely made that England is on the eve of great trade depression as a natural consequence of the increased cost of living. Richard Bell, M. P., says: "Already the wage worker is feeling the pinch of the augmented price of necessities. Twenty three shillings now buy only what twenty shillings did two years ago."

Moreover, the working classes, especially railway servants, are seething with discontent and the agitation for increased wages is proceeding rapidly. Strikes are threatened because the advance in the cost of living is tantamount to a reduction in wages. I am afraid we have a bit of fight before us, as the numbers of unemployed will be largely augmented. The only successful solution of our trouble is the establishment of a great labor combination to enforce a fair living wage."

Lord Avebury, head of the banking house of Roberts, Lubbock & Co., one of the largest English financiers, says there is sure to be a swing of the pendulum after the prosperous times of the last twenty years. He ascribes the increased cost of living to the greatly augmented output of gold.

ON ALBERTA.

The following verses have been received by a lady resident here, from his son in the States. The verses were written by the young lad and have been handed to us for publication:

Alberta! Where is Alberta,
That you write to us about?
I've forgotten my geography
And so I am in doubt.
Is it near Alaska?
That land of ice and snow,
Where winter lasts all summer?
Just write and let me know.
You say it's a farming land.
That wheat grows there galore,
I cannot understand it,
It must be near the shore,
Of some great inland-water.
Where the breezes softly play.
Oh, perhaps I've guessed it,
It's near the Hudson's Bay,
That body of inland water.
Which like the great Gulf stream,
Temper's the air around.
I'll have to look up my geography,
And find the place I see,
For if it's as you say it is
Then that's the place for me.

THE ELECTIONS.

The calm that follows the storm is now beginning to make itself felt. The excitement incidental to the campaign reached its height at the meeting Tuesday evening, and from that time public interests never waned until sufficient returns were in to prove Frank Oliver's election beyond a doubt. Tuesday's meeting was a record breaker; in which plain language was used in a plain manner. The Robertson Hall an hour before the meeting opened was jammed to the doors, and the dressing rooms off the stage and spaces around the scenery, as well as the stairways back and front, were packed with a crowd which voted its sentiments of approval or disapproval with no uncertain tone. Wednesday was a busy day. From early morning until the polls closed rigs were busy on the streets and in the noisier by country, driving the voters to the polls. It was thought for some time that all the voters would not be able to get their votes in on account of the great rush at the booths, but this, fortunately, was a false alarm and every voter's right was polled when the booths closed. In the Oliver committee rooms a great crowd assembled to hear the returns read from a special wire, and in front of the room another crowd assembled, on the street, to hear the returns as they were read from the upstairs window. The first return was Strathcona and it was received with hearty cheers, echoed by the crowd outside. St. Albert followed soon after and next came the Edmonton returns showing the handsome majority Mr. Oliver had received in his own town. From that time forward, as the returns were read, proving Frank Oliver's re-election by a majority almost twice as large as last election, the crowd and the enthusiasm grew again. About eleven, when the last despatch had been received, and Frank Oliver's election was assured, a procession was formed and with the band at its head, and illumined by hundreds of burning torches, accompanied by music supplied by an impromptu orchestra with a quantity of tin horns marched to the Queen's Hotel where the member for Alberta addressed them, as he did in '96, from the balcony window, thanking the electors for the handsome majority they had given him. It was a great night. F. Villeneuve, M. L. A., also spoke, the addresses being hailed with hearty cheers. After the addresses Mr. Oliver was escorted home by the crowd, in a commandeered phaeton, hauled by his supporters. Last night another demonstration was held, by way of celebrating the election, but the majority. A large procession again headed by the band escorted Mr. Oliver down Main street in a phaeton, with M. McCauley, M. L. A. At the Queen's addresses were delivered by Mr. Oliver, M. McCauley, Frank Mariaggi and F. Villeneuve. Mr. Oliver again thanked the electors for the great majority they had given him. Amid every demonstration of delight the procession with band playing, torches flaring and crowds cheering marched up the street and to Mr. Oliver's home where after a band concert, and more enthusiasm, he was permitted to retire, and the crowd returned. A bon-fire was afterwards lighted on the river bank, and the enthusiastic crowds gathered there to give a final cheer.

ON THE TRAIL OF GORDON.

Detective Foster arrived in Winnipeg Saturday after an absence of some weeks spent on the trail of the murderer, Gordon. Mr. Foster met with considerable success in his quest and traced the murderer to where he disposed of the horse and vehicle taken from the Daw farm at Whitewater. It was found that he had sold it to a rancher in the Dog Den hills, about 150 miles due south of Whitewater, and about 50 miles north of Bismark, N. D. The point at which Gordon boarded the train was also discovered, and the hunt for the slayer now seems to have been established on a tangible basis. Chief Elliott and his staff are exerting every effort to run the slayer of Daw and Smith down, and it is thought to be only a matter of time and patient tracing until he is apprehended.

A young officer who has been all through the South African war from the beginning, and was lately with Buller in his march north from Natal, writes: "What a lot of men and for that matter, regiments have lost their reputations out here! Many of the cavalry regiments would be given away with a pound of tea, so little are they thought of, and such poor work have they done." He writes in glowing terms of "Strathcona's Horse," who he says are a splendid lot of fellows but champion looters. The Boers have a deadly hatred to them, and some short time before he wrote, some men of that corps were surprised, and killed. They were all shot through the heart, he says, "and we knew what that meant—that they were taken prisoners and shot in cold blood."

MORE CANADIANS START FOR HOME.

A despatch to the Standard from Pretoria says that owing to unexpected difficulty in obtaining recruits for Gen. Baden-Powell's new Transvaal police it has been found impossible to disband several of the colonial volunteer corps, though the volunteers were told a few days ago that they would shortly be allowed to return to their homes. The despatch adds that the Household Cavalry and Headquarters of the Royal Canadian Regiment will start for home November 3.

Lieut.-Col. Otter, in his report dated at Ernte Fabrikken, September 22, stated that remaining with the headquarters of the regiment were—Lie Col. Otter, Capt. Macdonnell, Capt. Burstall, Capt. Ogilvie, Lieuts. Lawless, Mason, Swift, Lafferty, Semple, Carpenter, Capt. Weeks (quartermaster), Surg.-Capt. Fiset, Capt. Almond (chaplain), Capt. Dixon (historical recorder), and about 200 duty non-commissioned-officers and men.

AN ERRONEOUS IMPRESSION.

Editor Bulletin.

I am anxious to correct an impression that I understand has gone forth that I am a brother-in-law of Mr. Hugh J. Macdonald, who is one of the leaders of the party in opposition, and that I acted and voted against that party.

Mr. Macdonald is not a brother-in-law of mine. It is true that there are ties of connection between us. But apart from any connection of this kind I have for many years been able to regard Mr. Macdonald as one of my best friends. For this reason alone I abstained from voting. Otherwise my vote would certainly have been with the majority. As matters political go in Canada today, it is impossible to determine beyond a mere phrase, one party from the other.

The result of yesterday's voting has been due to the calm common sense verdict of an intelligent people. It has been the survival of the fittest.

Yours truly,
M. SCOTT VAN KOUHNET.

GENERAL NEWS.

As a result of his deal Sir Thomas Lipton is believed to have made $350,000. There were only 35,000 barrels of pork that could be delivered, and the Englishman owned them all, as well as twice that number bought from people who did not have a barrel they could deliver.

Shanghai, Nov. 2. The allies found in a wall of the imperial palace a tablet, the body of Chong, a favorite of the Emperor, who incurred the enmity of the Empress Dowager, and was killed by order of the latter before the flight of the court. Ching Fei, a second favorite of the Emperor, was captured by the allies. Prince Tuan fled to escape punishment. He is not with the court at Singan Pu and his whereabouts is unknown.

The public demonstration in honor of the returned soldiers from South Africa was marred by a frightful accident at Quebec. Five people were standing on an old rickety balcony at the rear of the second storey of the Chindor hotel when it suddenly collapsed. George Adams had his spine broken and his death is momentarily expected, and a young lady named Macaskill, who was standing underneath, also received probably fatal injuries. She had a leg broken in three places. Three other persons were badly injured. Fred, LeTourneau had his right leg broken, and a man named Pipe, and a woman whose name is unknown, were also injured.

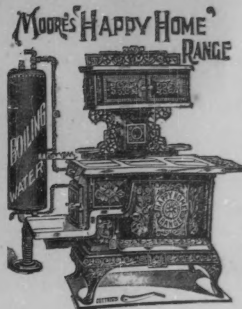

Conditions in South Africa are not improving. De Wet is a sly fox who always succeeds in finding a cover. Persya persists in hunting for the ditch. Negotiations with Botha have failed. Both attacks are multiplying and desperate efforts are being made to maintain an illusion of an actual state of war. It seems almost necessary for the British to place guards at every farm house and every picket is exposed to attack by Boer commandoes. When is needed is a change in point of view, by which acts of war will be regarded as criminal incidents. Lord Roberts has not yet succeeded in convincing the Boers that the war has ended and police work begun.

London, Nov. 3. Lord Roberts sends from Pretoria a striking appeal to his countrymen to refrain from turning the welcome of the home coming of the troops into a drunken orgy. He expresses the sincere hope that the welcome will not take the form of treating to stimulants have "thus less to do with them will tend to degrade those whom the nation delights to honor, and lower the soldiers of the Queen in the eyes of the world, which has watched with undisguised admiration the grand work they have performed for their sovereign and country." He says "I am very proud to be able to record that the conduct of this army from first to last has been exemplary. Not a single case of serious crime has been brought to my notice, indeed, nothing deserving the name of crime. I have trusted to the men's own soldierly feeling and good sense and they have borne themselves like heroes on the battlefield, and like gentlemen on all other occasions." Lord Roberts explains that he thus appeals because of the distressing and discreditable scenes resulting from in-judicious friends speeding the parting soldiers by shoving bottles of spirits into their hands and pockets.
